

Southern PHC

plumbing • heating • cooling

People

Elkay Announces New Executive Changes

Ronald C. Katz and the Elkay Board of Directors have announced that Katz intends to retire from his position as chairman and chief executive officer of Elkay Manufacturing Company. Katz will assume the position of executive chairman of the Board of Directors. John P. (Jack) Edl has also announced his plans to retire from his position as president and chief operating officer. Edl will continue to serve on Elkay's Board of Directors and will assume the position of vice chairman. Timothy J. Jahnke, most recently group president, Home and Family Products Group of Newell Rubbermaid, will join this global manufacturer of plumbing and cabinetry products as president and chief executive officer at its corporate headquarters in Oak Brook, Illinois. Jahnke brings a 21 year track record of accomplishments as the president and group executive of several consumer business units, as the top human resource executive and as a corporate officer. Jahnke earned his Bachelors Degree in Business from the University of Wisconsin, Oshkosh.

Danfoss A/S Announces Managerial Changes

Danfoss A/S, the Denmark-based parent company of Danfoss Inc. (U.S. and Canada), has announced several top-level managerial changes following the retirement of Hans Kirk, executive vice president and chief development officer.

Kim Fausing will become executive vice president and chief operations officer, and join the Danfoss Executive Committee. He will assume responsibility for the company's three product divisions: Danfoss Refrigeration & Air Conditioning, Danfoss Heating and Danfoss Motion Controls. He was previously president of Danfoss Refrigeration & Air

Kim Fausing

Kjeld Staerk

Conditioning.

Kjeld Staerk will become president of Danfoss Refrigeration & Air Conditioning. He was president of the Danfoss Services Division.

Ole M. Daugbjerg will become chief reputation officer. He was previously chief of staff.

Ole M. Daugbjerg

Jollay Joins BrassCraft as Vice President

BrassCraft has announced the hiring of Jeff Jollay to the position of Vice President of Marketing and Product Development. Prior to joining BrassCraft, Jollay was Vice President, Sales and Consumer Marketing for HON office furniture. In addition, he has held positions as General Manager for Brunswick Recreation and Marketing Director for Whirlpool major appliances. Jollay received his Bachelor of Science Degree from Western Michigan University and his MBA from Indiana University.

