

Renew Today!
Get another year of RJ FREE
Renew@rjfree.com

Reeves Journal

Visit our Web site at www.ReevesJournal.com

newsconnection

people

Colmac Coil Manufacturing has promoted Jeremy Olberding to sales manager. He will supervise factory sales personnel and oversee the Colmac Heat Transfer, Industrial Refrigeration, and Heat Pump Water Heater product groups. Olberding joined the Colmac team in 2005 as an applications sales engineer. He held the positions of R&D engineer and R&D engineering manager prior to his promotion to sales manager.

Elkay Manufacturing Co., announced Jan. 13 that Timothy Jahnke, Elkay's president and CEO, has been elected to serve on the company's board of directors. Prior to joining Elkay in 2007, Jahnke served 21 years with Newell Rubbermaid, a global manufacturer of brand-name housewares, hardware, tools, home furnishings and office products.

Bob Guenther has accepted a new position with the International Code Council's Plumbing, Mechanical and Fuel Gas group as director of mechanical programs. Guenther joined the Council's Technical Staff in 2005 where he responded to thousands of code interpretations and technical inquiries, taught seminars across the country, and authored reference books and documents. Prior to working for the Council, Guenther was the mechanical official for Long Beach, Calif., and a mechanical inspector for the City of Los Angeles for more than 35 years.

Hisashi Uryu, the former president of Noritz's Hong Kong Division, was named Feb. 9 president of Noritz America Corp., a manufacturer of tankless water heaters. Uryu started with Noritz Japan in 1988 as an engineer at the production process system division, where he contributed to cost-reduction and productivity. He became president of the Hong King division in 2001.

Spartan Tool LLC, of Mendota, Ill., said Jan. 26 Keith Nesky has recently accepted an appointment to the newly created position of vice president of sales, North America, effectively immediately. Nesky joins Spartan from Barnes Distribution in Cleveland where he was vice president, sales for the northeast US.

Webstone Company Inc., a Worcester, Mass.-based valve manufacturer, said it has appointed Grant Dow to the post of Western regional sales manager. In this capacity Dow will hold responsibilities for all Western United States and Western provinces of Canada. His duties will include sales enhancement, training, new product launches and representative management. Dow brings extensive industry experience in sales management and is a licensed plumbing contractor, as well as a member of IAPMO. ■

CORRECTION:

In the January issue an incorrect photo was run along with a people item about Jim Van Landingham being promoted at ThermaSol. ThermaSol, a supplier of steam shower products based in Simi Valley, Calif., said Jim Van Landingham was recently promoted from national sales manager to vice president of customer relations. In this newly created position, Van Landingham will oversee all customer-related aspects of the company. He will examine ThermaSol's existing business practices and implement new tactics to enhance the customer experience. In the 14 years that Van Landingham has been with the company has held the positions of marketing director, purchasing/production manager, western regional sales manager and vice president of operations.